More Republican JOBS bills signed into law

LANSING – A package of bills aimed at exempting small start-up businesses from certain taxes during their first five years of operation was signed into law today, announced Sen. Jud Gilbert, R-Algonac.

A Republican initiative to provide tax relief for employers creating new jobs also was signed.

“It’s great to see these bills signed into law giving small businesses a chance to get on their feet, make a profit and remain competitive,” Gilbert said. “It’s also high time we stopped penalizing businesses for hiring new employees. Considering the governor vetoed these bills the first time around, this is great news for everyone.”

Senate Bills 1302-1305, now Public Acts 321-324, and SB 1274, now PA 319, are part of the Republican JOBS Action Plan aimed at spurring job creation and economic growth in Michigan.
